AGREEMENT

To

PROVIDE A TWO-DAY CLASSROOM COURSE ENTITLED:

The parties to this agreement are:

- EduMine. - Professional Development Division of InfoMine Inc. (EduMine), Vancouver
- ......................................................... (Presenter)

EduMine agrees to:

- Act as course manager, coordinator and director
- Promote the course on the InfoMine / EduMine websites, via business relationships with other mining media, and via email
- Provide web pages and online registration facilities for the course
- Coordinate and accept payment from registered course delegates
- Cover travel, food and accommodation expenses as appropriate and as agreed with presenter for each course venue
- Provide course facilities comprising a fully-equipped classroom, overhead projection, internet access, course notes, refreshments, snacks and sandwich lunches for registered course delegates and instructors for each course venue
- Provide online access to EduMine, specifically the course titled “...............................” for registered course delegates for a six week period from three weeks prior to and three weeks after the course
- Pay Presenter the specified fees (see below) for provision of each course covered by this agreement
- Provide to Presenter a course registration list
- Collect and return to Presenter a summary of all completed evaluation forms.
- Provide delegate contact details to Presenter.

Presenter agrees to:

- Provide a master set of course notes to be delivered to EduMine’s offices by two weeks prior to each course
- Allow the use under copyright of the course notes appropriate for this program
- Provide services for delivery of the course in the agreed venues
- Provide the above services for a fixed fee of two thousand Canadian dollars (CD$2000) plus a variable fee of two hundred Canadian dollars (CD$200) for each full-fee-paying delegate plus applicable taxes, up to a maximum of 20 delegates, for each course delivered
- Issue take-away projects to delegates registered for the Certificate in Mining Studies (CMS) and provide written assessment of said projects to EduMine for a fee of one hundred Canadian dollars (CD$100) per delegate
- Warrant that the course content is consistent with high standards of professional conduct and does not discriminate against learners on the basis of gender, age, socioeconomic or ethnic background, religion, sexual orientation, or disability
- Ensure that all proprietary interests in any product, instrument, device, service, or material held by author and discussed within the course content shall be disclosed at the beginning of the course.
EduMine and Presenter jointly agree to the following:

- The course fee will be one thousand five hundred and fifty Canadian dollars (CD$1550) + applicable taxes, unless otherwise agreed with presenter.
- A 10% discount for the 3rd and any subsequent delegates from the same organization who enroll together shall be applicable.
- The maximum number of delegates will be limited to twenty-five (25) unless otherwise agreed with presenter.
- Delegates who are UBC graduate students or InfoMine personnel will be accommodated (up to a maximum of two per course) for a reduced fee of 25% of the regular fee, provided that spare seats are available.
- EduMine undertakes to keep Presenter informed of progress with respect to delegate registration.
- In the event of insufficient delegates to adequately cover costs, EduMine reserves the right to cancel this course at any time up to two weeks prior to course delivery. In the event of cancellation, costs incurred will be the responsibility of the party incurring those costs, unless otherwise agreed with presenter.
- The initial term of this agreement shall be for one year. Thereafter it will automatically renew annually unless cancelled by either party with three months’ notice.
